

2024 ACPV Workshop Proposal
 Sunday, April 14
 Salt Lake City, UT

Salmonella Outbreaks: Different Perspectives on Foodborne Pathogen Outbreaks
 Program Chair: Michelle Kromm and Tim Johnson Fundraising Chair: Roy Jacobson

The 2024 ACPV Workshop titled, “Salmonella Outbreaks: Different Perspectives on Foodborne Pathogen Outbreaks” was held in conjunction with the Western Poultry Diseases Conference in Salt Lake City, UT on April 14, 2024. Topics included regulatory updates, how to communicate during an outbreak from different perspectives, the role of litigation in food safety, and improving human health outcomes. Speakers included:

- Dr. Emilio Esteban, Undersecretary of Food Safety, FSIS
- Heather Carleton, Chief of the Enteric Diseases Laboratory Branch, CDC
- Dr. Mat Wise, Chief of the Outbreak Response and Prevention Branch, CDC
- Mr. Michael Grabell, ProPublica
- Dr. Robert O’Connor, PurePath Dynamics LLC
- Mr. Ryan Osterholm, OFT Law, PLLC
- Ms. Alyssa L. Rebensdorf, Faegre Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP
- Dr. Randy Singer, University of Minnesota
- Dr. Tim Johnson, University of Minnesota

2024 ACPV Workshop Budget
EXPENSES
Speaker Travel Cost	$ 5,000.00
Meals (Breakfast, 2 Breaks)	$ 5,500.00
Management Travel Expense (1x$1500)	$ 1,500.00
Printed Programs	$ 350.00
RACE Certification	$ 350.00
AV Equipment Fee (Screen Package) + Recording	$ 5,485.00
Total	$ 18,185.00

INCOME
Sponsors	$ 15,000.00
Registrants	$ 12,000.00
Total	$ 27,000.00

REGISTRATION CATEGORIES
Registration Member	$ 150.00
Registration Non-Member	$ 175.00
Student	$ 40.00

Attendees included:

- AAAP Members: 52
- Non AAAP Members: 22
- AAAP Student Members: 6
- AAAP Associate Members: 3
- AAAP Retired Members: 2
- ACPV Members Only: 1