

Annual ACPV Approved Training Program Review Form

Review Date: 6-12-2015

1. Name of Training Program and Address:

Master of Avian Health and Medicine
University of Georgia and University of Melbourne
953 College Station Road
Athens, GA 30602

2. Training Program mission, goals and objectives:

Mission: The mission of this program is to provide an educational opportunity for a larger number of veterinarians to specialize in poultry (chicken and turkey) health than would be available at either The University of Georgia or the University of Melbourne

Goals:

1. To educate veterinarians desiring additional training as poultry specialists
2. To develop and maintain an on-line training program for poultry veterinarians
3. To train students in a manner that they will keep current employment or gain new employment in the poultry industry
4. To provide the education and training to qualify to sit for the American College of Poultry Veterinarians Board Certification Exam.

Objectives:

1. Provide knowledge to poultry veterinarians worldwide
2. Expand the student base for training programs at both institutions

3. Affiliated University(s):

University of Georgia

University of Melbourne

4. Primary Program Contact:

Dr. Charles L. Hofacre, 706-542-1904

5. When do your students graduate from the program? Circle all that apply

May

August

December

5. ACPV Diplomate Faculty Members:

Name	Address	Email	Tel
1. Dr. Chuck Hofacre	953 College Station Road Athens, GA 30602	chofacre@uga.edu	706-542-1904
2. Dr. Karen Burns Grogan	2800 Preston Ridge Lane Dacula, GA 30019	poultryvet@comcast.net	770-561-0026
3. Dr. Monique S. Franca	953 College Station Road Athens, GA 30602	mfranca@uga.edu	706-542-1766
4. Dr. Steve Collett	953 College Station Road Athens, GA 30602	colletts@uga.edu	706-542-1904
5. Dr. Naola Ferguson-Noel	953 College Station Road Athens, GA 30602	naolaf@uga.edu	706-542-1904
6. Dr. Stan Kleven EMERITUS	953 College Station Road Athens, GA 30602	skleven@uga.edu	770-542-1904
7. Dr. Guillermo Zavala ADJUNCT	953 College Station Road Athens, GA 30602	gzavala@uga.edu	770-540-5327

6. Have there been any changes to the program since the previous year including program funding, staff, facilities support, etc? If so please explain. None

7. Current Student Enrollment 2014 - 2015 (number of students and names):

This year's total enrollment: 7

Student's names:

1. Kathleen Becher
2. Sam Hurley
2. Elaine Lee
3. Jafar Pazani
4. Benjamin Schlegel
5. Erry Setyawan
6. Christiaan Ter Veen

8. Students that Graduated since approval of our program (number of students and names):

Student's names:

1. Elena Behnke
2. Katherine Hayes
3. Philip Hammond
4. Brian Burke
5. Branislav Karajonji
6. Merlijn Kense
7. Nirman Minhas
8. Yuen Phang
9. Benjamin Wood

8. How many students that graduated from your program submitted an application for the ACPV exam in 2014? One

9. Of these students, how many graduates were successful in their application to sit for the ACPV exam in 2014? One

10. How many or what percent of these participants passed all 3 sections of the ACPV exam? 100%

If the participant (s) did not pass the entire exam, how many passed 1 of 3 sections (1/3) of the exam?

If the participant (s) did not pass the entire exam, how many passed 2 of 3 sections (2/3) of the exam?

ACPV BOARD OF GOVERNOR'S ADDITIONAL COMMENTS:

2015 Review Notes Dr. Drew Parker DVM, MAM, ACPV Diplomate:

The three year program offers a Master of Avian Health and Medicine. This is an online program in conjunction with the University of Georgia and University of Melbourne, allowing educational opportunities in poultry medicine. There are currently 7 students enrolled with a total of 9 students previously graduating the program. In 2014, one student applied for the ACPV exam and passed. No changes have been made to the program over the past year. The program is meeting all criteria for an approved ACPV training program. The program is active. Student performance and review could be more clearly defined in the future.